Comments/Historical Information June 2021: This fund was initially created administratively in June 2021 for the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (PL. 117-2) and was subsequently retitled from Home & Community-Based Services American Rescue Plan Federal Fund to Home & Community-Based Services American Rescue Plan Fund. July 2021: Budget Act of 2021 (SB 129), Control Section 11.95 statutorily created the fund in the State Treasury, and made appropriations. It requires all appropriations from the fund to be available for encumbrance or expenditure through December 31, 2023, unless an earlier deadline is specified at the time of the appropriation, and available for liquidation until June 30, 2026. It gave the Director of Finance the authority to extend or shorten the dates of availability for encumbrance or expenditure, and liquidation of any appropriation therein.
